They have been warned time and time again, by the ratiroad men, to keep away, but to these cautions they turn a deaf ear. If the parents do not take some immediate steps to prevent this state of affairs, they must not be surprised to learn at at any moment that their child has been run over and badly mangled or killed outright, for such carelessness is sure to have such an ending.

HUSBAND, WIFE OR CHILD.

There are a good many gentlemen in this city who would like a first-class painting of their wife for their home, and there are many ladies who no doubt desire such a picture of their husbands as time cannot efface or change. It is not often that such opportunities ocenr in which such pictures can be secured, as lew artists ever leave the great cities except as they are compelled to do so because of failing health. Prof. A. S. Merriett, now stopping with his wife at the Douglas Avenue hotel comes to this city with the highest recommendations from not only judges of work, but from the people for whom he has done work, and such a chance to get pastel or oil portraits, lifesize, from such hands may not occur in a life time again. He very much desires, on account of his wife's health, to stop this summer where he can catch the invigorating breezes of the prairies. He had started for Emporia with a large number of letters of introduction to prominent citizens, but hearing of Wichita and her healthful location, came right on here. For fifty or sixty dollars you can get a picture of yourself popularity of their new invention. what would cost you in a city from one to two hundred dollars, to say nothing of the expense of going to the city.
